9-20-1968

Student Chapter Inaugurated into American Society for Information Science

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.
DAYTON, Ohio, September 20, 1968 --- The Information Science Department continues its move forward this Thursday when its Student Chapter will be inaugurated into the American Society for Information Science, Southern Ohio Chapter. Mr. Robert S. Taylor, President of ASIS, will be the guest speaker. His topic will be "Information Science--What, Where, When."

Mr. Taylor is the Director of the Library at Hampshire College, a new college which opens its doors to students in 1970. His job is to design and establish a new type of library for colleges and universities. He refers to it as an experimental library.

Prior to this position Mr. Taylor was Director of the Center for Information Science at Lehigh University.

The program Thursday starts with a social hour at 6 p.m. in the Faculty Club Dining Room, dinner at 6:45 p.m. in the Staff Dining Room and the meeting at 8 p.m. in the Boll Theater. The affair is open to the public.