DAYTON, Ohio, November 5, 1968 -- Soul is "telling it like it is" and that is exactly what UD students will be doing November 14-17. Soul Weekend, whose theme will be I've got soul -- Can you dig it?", is being sponsored by UAO, Student Government, Alpha Phi Alpha and BATU (Black Action Through Unity).

Soul digging will begin Thursday, November 14, with a concert by the 5th Dimension, presented by Student Government, at 8 P.M. in the UD fieldhouse. On Friday, November 15, the annual TGIF dance in the Union Snackbar, for UD students only, will turn soul and routines of the latest soul dances will be demonstrated. Friday evening the movie, "Nothing But A Man", starring Ivan Dixon and Abbey Lincoln, will be shown in Wohlleben Auditorium at 7 and 9 P.M.

Saturday evening from 8:30-12:30 the DiTalians, a twenty-one piece band, will provide music for a dance entitled "Soul In Depth." Open to the public for a fee of 25¢, the dance will be held in the Ballroom of the Kennedy Union. An Afro-American Fashion Show will take place at intermission.

Sunday, November 17, is another full day of "soul". Beginning at 11 A.M. in the main chapel on the campus, the Brothers of Mount St. John will provide music for a Father Rivers type Mass. Father Gene Wilson, C.P.P.S., a black priest, will act as celebrant with Father Cyril Middendorf as concelebrant.

Then at 6 P.M. in the Kennedy Union Cafeteria, the Continental Cuisine Series will feature a Soul Dinner. The menu will include Pan-Fried Chicken, Barbecued Ribs, Pickled Pigs Feet, Mandarin Oranges with Sour Cream and Fruit Cocktail, Chitterlings, Mashed-Buttered Turnips, Broccoli with Butter, Collard Greens with Ham Hocks, Black-Eyed Peas with Rice, Rice with Gravy, Sweet Potato Pie, Corn Bread and Coffee. A live band will provide music for the Afro-American Fashion Show and the dance routines which will be a part of the Cuisine program. Tickets can be purchased in advance by sending $3.50 per dinner to the JFK Union UAO Office.

Winding up a weekend of complete soul will be two short plays given by Theater West. Alpha Phi Alpa will present the theater in the round shows at 8:30, Sunday evening in the Kennedy Union Cafeteria. Tickets will be on sale at the door.
