DAYTON, Ohio, March 7, 1969 --- You don't have to be an Aristotle or Socrates to experience the Greek way. The UAO Department at the University of Dayton will give you the opportunity to literally taste the flavor of Greek life at their Continental Cuisine Greek Dinner, Sunday, March 16, at 6 p.m. in the Kennedy Union Ballroom.

Aphrodite, the goddess of love and other gods and goddesses in statue form, along with a Greek fountain will provide a Grecian atmosphere for the evening's festivities. Mr. Philip Antonatas, President of the Greek Church Community in Dayton will act as MC and present a talk on the history of Greece. The husband and wife team of Mr. and Mrs. John Tolis will perform various traditional Greek dances and the evening's finale will be communal dancing to "Zorba the Greek". The blessing will be given by Reverend George Hiotis, assistant pastor of the Greek Orthodox Church in Dayton.

The real flavor of the Greek way will be found in the evening's menu which will include:

- Koto Soupa Angolemono .......... Chicken and Rice Soup
- Psito Arvi Pilaf ................. Leg of Lamb and Rice
- Mousaka .......................... Ground Beef and Egg Plant
- Kolokithakia Salata ............ Zucchini Salad
- Tourlau Tora .................... Oven Baked Vegetables
- Tsoureki .......................... Holiday Bread
- Plaiki .............................. Fish
- Relish Tray ...................... Black Olives, Green Peppers, White Cheese
- Baklava ............................ Strudle
- Drinks ............................. Coffee, Tea, Milk

All this for only $3.50 per person. If you're interested call Mrs. Ruth Reineke at 61-5500, Ext. 356, and reserve a place at Sunday's Greek table, or send a check or money order to the JFK Union.
