

4-10-1969

Joseph B. Burns to Move into Development Office

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation

"Joseph B. Burns to Move into Development Office" (1969). News Releases. 3471.
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/3471

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.

THE UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON
PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPARTMENT

JOE McLAUGHLIN
DIRECTOR, GENERAL PUBLICITY

DAYTON, OHIO 45409 AREA CODE 513 461-5500 EXT. 500

DAYTON, Ohio, April 10, 1969 --- Joseph B. Burns will move into the University of Dayton's Development Office May 1, it was announced today by Bro. Elmer C. Lackner, S.M., Vice President for Public Relations.

Burns will move into the Development Office as assistant director under Elwood Zimmer. For the past four years, Burns has been program director, commercial manager and music director of the University's radio station, WVUD-FM.

Burns moved to UD in April of 1965. Until then, his working lifetime was spent in the newspaper profession.

He was in the editorial department of The Dayton Daily News for 16 years, joining that newspaper when it purchased, and amalgamated, the Dayton Journal and the Dayton Herald. Burns was with the Herald for three years. His previous affiliation was with The Los Angeles Examiner. Educated in his native England and Canada, Burns began his newspaper career at Windsor, Ont., with the Daily Star.

Burns, well known throughout the community through his newspaper and radio affiliations and his church and school associations, admits to three hobbies: travel, coaching Jesse Haines baseball, and amateur theatricals. His travels have taken him throughout the United States and Canada, and to Europe and Mexico. He has spoken before numerous service and luncheon clubs and contributed articles to local and national publications.