DAYTON, Ohio, April 17, 1969  --- Stephen C. Daugherty has been appointed program director and commercial manager of WVUD-FM, the University of Dayton radio station, it was announced today by George Biersack, General Manager of WVUD-FM at the University.

Daugherty succeeds Joe Burns, recently appointed assistant director for Development under Elwood Zimmer. Both changes will become effective May 1.

Daugherty, a graduate of U.D.'s Communication Arts department, has been an instructor in the department for two years. A native of Akron, he began his work in communications as a part-time photographer for a TV station while still in high school. At U.D. he was a student announcer on WVUD-FM. Under the direction of Professor George C. Biersack, department chairman, Daugherty has made several promotion films for the University.
