DAYTON, Ohio, July 3, 1969 --- Rev. Frank J. Kenney, S.M., a native of Dayton, has been appointed Dean of Men at the University of Dayton, Rev. Raymond A. Roesch, S.M., President, announced today. Father Kenney, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Kenney of 4721 Babylon Street, Dayton, assumes his position immediately.

Father Kenney replaces James Paquette, who is now a member of the Dean of Students Office at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, Arkansas.

A 1939 graduate of Dayton's Chaminade High School, Father Kennedy spent the past year at Pennsylvania State University where he interned in the offices of the Dean of Students and the Head of the Religious Affairs. Besides attending classes, he participated in staff meetings, interviewed persons in various student personnel offices, attended student group meetings, and gave religious counseling.

Father Kenney, who took his final vows in the Society of Mary in 1944, graduated from the University of Dayton in 1943 with a bachelor of arts degree in theology. He was ordained a priest at the University of Fribourg, Switzerland, in 1949 and received his doctor of sacred theology degree from the Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C., in 1956.

He has taught at Hamilton Catholic High School, Hamilton, Ohio; and St. Joseph's High School, Cleveland, and served as principal of Most Holy Trinity High School, Brooklyn. He was director of the Marianist Second Novitiate at Glencoe, Missouri, from 1962 to 1965, and director of religious at St. Joseph's in Cleveland from 1965 to 1968.
