DAYTON, Ohio, September 26, 1969 --- With October across the nation comes fall and plans for the approaching long, hard winter. With October at the University of Dayton comes the Campus Carnival and plans for the approaching Homecoming Week.

This year the Union Activities Organization at UD will hold their annual carnival Friday, October 3, from 7 p.m. to 11:30 p.m. on the tennis courts directly outside of the JFK Union.

In order to raise money for Homecoming '69, which begins October 11 and concludes October 18, more than 35 organizations will sponsor a variety of booths, sure to please every member of the family. Amidst an atmosphere of music, prizes, clowns and balloons, one can meet new people, reminisce with friends and end up laughing the evening away.

The carnival's activities will include a paint-in, dunking booth, computerized horse race, kissing booth, electric maze, car smash, mouse race, fortune telling booth, electronic dice game and many others. And of course what's a carnival without cotton candy, candy apples, the traditional hotdog and hamburger and even pastry goods.

It's a family affair for family entertainment!
