DAYTON, Ohio, November 14, 1969 --- Rafael Ruiz, Assisting Minister to the Spanish-American congregation of Riverside Church, New York City, will speak on American Foreign Policy as it relates to the Latin American countries and particularly Cuba at the University of Dayton this Tuesday, November 18. The lecture will begin at 3 p.m. in the Kennedy Union.

Ruiz, who worked in Vietnam for the American Friends Service Committee before joining the New York church, has just returned from a trip to Cuba with members of the Friends committee. He is spending this weekend in San Francisco working for the November 14-15-16 Moratorium group there.

Ruiz was born in Mexico City. He concentrated his university studies in philosophy, theology, psychiatry and religion at the Pan-American School in Texas, Texas Christian University and the Union Theological Seminary. He is a pacifist and has frequently spoken out against the Vietnam War.
