Most Reverend Paul F. Leibold to Speak at the University of Dayton

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/3571
DAYTON, Ohio, November 18, 1969 --- Most Reverend Paul F. Leibold, Archbishop of Cincinnati and native of Dayton, will speak at the University of Dayton, Friday, November 21, at 3 p.m. in the Kennedy Union Ballroom. The subject of Archbishop Leibold's talk, which is sponsored by the Education Department of the Union Activities Organization (UAO), will be "The Catholic University Serving a Troubled Society."

Before his appointment as Archbishop of the Cincinnati diocese this past July, Archbishop Leibold served as bishop of Evansville, Indiana since his appointment in April of 1966. He has also served as chancellor and vicar general of the archdioceses of Cincinnati.

In 1948 Archbishop Leibold was appointed papal chamberlain by the Holy Father and in 1949 he received his Doctor of Canon Law Degree from Anglicum University, Rome, Italy. He was appointed domestic prelate by the Holy Father in 1950.

Archbishop Leibold has also served on various committees and councils, In 1950 he was named Secretary of the Archdiocesan Building Commission and a member of the Archdiocesan Board of Education. In 1951 he was a member of the Archdiocesan Administrative Council and in 1955 served as Secretary for the Diocesan Board of Consultants.