DAYTON, Ohio, April 23, 1970 --- Brother Dennis J. Thomas, S.M., 33, a 1959 graduate of the University of Dayton, will be buried Saturday in Queen of Heaven cemetery on the University's East Campus. Brother Thomas, who had been assigned to Collegio San Jose, Rio Pedras, Puerto Rico, since the fall of 1960, died in Lutheran Hospital, Cleveland, after an illness of several months.

Brother Thomas, who received his bachelor of science in education degree in secondary education in June, 1959, taught one year at Dayton's Chaminade High School. He was a mathematics teacher.

A native of Euclid, Ohio, Brother Thomas was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas of Euclid. A concelebrated solemn high requiem Mass, with Rev. John Mulligan, S.M., Provincial of the Society of Mary's New York Province, will be the principle celebrant at St. Joseph's Church in Cleveland.

Immediately following the Mass the body will be brought to Dayton and visitation will be from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m. in Marianist College's Queen of Apostles Chapel on the East Campus. Burial will follow with Father Mulligan presiding.
