DAYTON, Ohio, May 18, 1970 --- "The Overseas School: Opportunities And Experiences" will be the subject of an International Education Workshop sponsored by the University of Dayton Department of Secondary Education, June 15-19. The workshop will feature Harold Taylor, former President of Sarah Lawrence College and author of World as Teacher, and Dr. William H. Martin, Chief, Division of Foreign Studies, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in Washington, D. C., open to graduate, undergraduate and post graduate students, the course will offer two credits for participation.

Dr. Taylor and Dr. Martin will be participating with other members of the UD faculty and members of the Department of Defense Schools in lectures and small discussion groups. The workshop will cover such areas as the responsibilities, opportunities and prospects of teaching in the overseas school; trends in overseas education; and procedures in applying for positions with the Department of Defense Schools.

Application for this workshop are now being taken through Dr. Ellis Joseph, Chairman of the Department of Secondary Education.
