5-29-1970

Summer Institute in Spanish Applications Still Accepted

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/3627

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.
DAYTON, Ohio, May 29, 1970 — Applications for the Summer Institute in Spanish at the University of Dayton are still being accepted by Dr. Mario Saquel, Professor of Languages and Director of the Office of International Education at the University of Dayton. Participants can register for the Institute, which opens June 18, until July 31.

Application should be made to Dr. Mario Saquel, Department of Languages, University of Dayton, Dayton, Ohio 45409. Applicants must have a bachelor's degree and a commitment to teach Spanish, grades 7-12, during the school year, 1970-71.

The objectives of this Institute are to increase teaching effectiveness in a Spanish class by means of the basic principles of linguistics applied to English and Spanish in parallel, constructive contrasts of both cultures in what is similar as well as what is different in both, the observation of a system of instruction used by an expert, the opportunity to attempt use of this system in a demonstration class subject to the immediate correction and criticism of an expert, understanding and application of the advantages offered by audio-visual methods, and practice in oral and written Spanish as a vehicle of communication.

Eight graduate credits are available through the Institute, which has been conducted at the University for five summers. Dr. Saquel is a native of Chile, making yearly visits to his homeland for which he is the Chilean Consul in the Midwest area.