THE THIRTIES REVISITED

DAYTON, Ohio, June 12, 1970 --- Studs Terkel, author of the best seller, Hard Times: An Oral History of The Depression, will be on campus for a public lecture on July 16th. His appearance is in connection with "The Thirties Revisited" program being conducted on the University of Dayton campus this summer. The program opens June 22 and runs through July 31. Many people, including Dayton residents, who contributed significantly to the years of the Depression, are participating in the program. Dr. Francis Henninger, Director of the University's American Studies program, is coordinating the summer workshop.

Jesse Owens, great Olympic runner from Ohio State University, will be one of the featured speakers during the program. The workshop will cover all phases of that era --- a period which educators feel has had a great effect on the country even until today.

Politics, economics, government, music, art, sports, news media will all be discussed by the participants during the six week period. Dr. Henninger can be contacted at 229-3417, or 229-3434.
