DAYTON, Ohio, July 30, 1970 --- Sister Jo Marie Griesgraber of the Precious Blood Catholic order of nuns will share the spotlight this Sunday, August 2, at the final diploma exercise of the University of Dayton's 120th Commencement with Mrs. Lawrence (Betty) Jehn of 6014 Aqua Place, Dayton.

Sister Jo Marie will graduate summa cum laude with a 3.911 academic average. She will receive a bachelor of arts in history degree. Eight others are graduating with honors in the class of 510.

Mrs. Jehn, who will receive a master's degree in history, is the mother of nine children and has completed her master's work in 2½ years. She received her bachelor's degree from UD 27 years ago. Two of her children, Judith and David, have preceded her in graduating from UD in the past two years. Judith received her degree in mathematics with a minor in computer science in 1968 and David was awarded a master's degree in English in 1969.

Three of her boys are still students at UD. James and Paul are majoring in Geology, and Joseph is in Civil Engineering. The other four children are Ann and Mary Christine in the senior and junior classes respectively at Alter High School, and Theresa and John in the sixth and second grades respectively at Incarnation School.

The nine honor graduates are:
