8-17-1970

Mr. William M. Hurley and Mr. Thomas M. Anderson Appointed New Positions

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/3667

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.
DAYTON, Ohio, August 17, 1970 --- Mr. William M. Hurley, Dean of Men at Mansfield State College at Mansfield, Pennsylvania, and Mr. Thomas W. Anderson, Assistant Dean of Men at Albion College, Albion, Michigan, have been appointed Assistant Dean of Students and Assistant Dean of Men respectively at the University of Dayton, Margaret Holland, Dean of Students, announced today.

Early last week, Miss Holland had announced the appointment of Richard C. McCauley as Administrative Assistant Dean of Students. Mr. McCauley had been Assistant Dean of Men at UD before his new appointment.

Mr. Hurley, who is a doctoral candidate at Indiana University, has been in education since his 1951 graduation from Lock Haven State College, Lock Haven, Pennsylvania. He has taught on the elementary and secondary school level and held administrative positions in high school and college. He has been with Mansfield State College since 1963 when he was named Assistant Dean of Men.

A graduate of Canton High School, Canton, Pa., Mr. Hurley, who is 40 years old, has been the recipient of a National Defense Education Act Graduate Fellowship in Counseling and Guidance at Pennsylvania State University, 1960-61; General Electric Fellowship in Guidance at Syracuse University, 1962, and National Defense Education Act Advance Graduate Fellowship in Guidance and Counseling at Indiana, 1963-69. He received his master of education degree in guidance and counseling (psychology) from Penn State in 1961.

The 6-4, 225-pound Pennsylvania is married and has two children.

Mr. Anderson, who is 27, received his bachelor of arts degree in business administration from Iowa Wesleyan College, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, and his master of arts degree in student personnel from Michigan State University. He has been employed at Albion since 1968. Prior to that position he served as admissions counselor at Iowa Wesleyan for one year. He is married and has one child.