DAYTON, Ohio, August 19, 1970 --- Miss Margaret C. Rzetelny, Mr. David J. Goode, and Mr. Myron H. Achbach have been appointed to positions as Assistant to the Director of Admissions for Student Promotion at the University of Dayton, Bro. Ralph Mravintz, Director of Admissions, announced today. The trio is serving under the supervision of Mr. Michael Edwards, Assistant to the Director for Student Recruitment.

Miss Rzetelny's responsibility is as a representative to the junior colleges and to the Catholic College Coordinating Council which prepares joint college nights for the Catholic universities of the east and midwest. Mr. Achbach is the representative to the Ohio high schools and Mr. Goode to other midwestern high schools.

Miss Rzetelny, who served as a dormitory floor advisor and a vice president of Student Government at UD, received her bachelor of science degree in education this month from UD. She worked as a Catholic Youth Organization counselor at the Elyria, Ohio, summer camp from 1963 to 1966 and has had part-time teaching experience in the Elyria and Dayton school systems.

Mr. Achbach has a bachelor of arts degree in English from the University of Dayton and a master of arts degree in school administration from Western Reserve University. He has 11 high school teaching years in Cleveland, Cincinnati and Dayton, serving as Athletic Director at Cleveland's Cathedral Latin High School and Assistant Principal at Purcell High School in Cincinnati. He also taught at Kettering's Alter High School.

Mr. Goode, who served as a Public Information Officer in the U.S. Army, has a bachelor of science in music education from the University of Dayton.

All are assuming their duties immediately.
