DAYTON, Ohio, March 12, 1971 — The Honorable Corneliu Bogdan, Ambassador of the Socialist Republic of Romania to the United States, will speak at the University of Dayton this Wednesday, March 17, on the topic, "The Romanian Foreign Policy."

The Ambassador, who has been with the diplomatic service since 1948, will talk in the Kennedy Union Ballroom at 2 p.m. The program is co-sponsored by the Department of Political Science and the Student Government.

Following the main talk Ambassador Bogdan will meet with students at 4 p.m. in a seminar program. The seminar will be held in rooms 159-160 of the Kennedy Union.

Bogdan, who was born in Bucharest in 1921, has held several posts in the Romanian Foreign Office dealing with Western Europe and the United States. He has served as counselor, deputy director, press director and head of the West European Department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

He participated at the sessions of the General Assembly of the United Nations Organization from 1956 through 1961 and has been a Romanian delegate to several international conferences. In 1962 he was the deputy representative of Romania to the Security Council of the United Nations.

Ambassador Bogdan assumed his present position in June, 1967. He is a graduate of Bucharest Institute for Economic Sciences, the International Relations Section.
