DAYTON, Ohio, March 18, 1971 --- Richard C. Bernard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril A. Bernard, Maria Stein, Ohio, is a member of the student body silent majority at the University of Dayton who has been selected for one of the top committees of the University's new Board of Trustees. The Maria Stein graduate student, who received his bachelor's degree in music in 1969, has been appointed to the Board's Student Affairs Committee, H. Talbott Mead, Board chairman, announced today.

Content to concentrate entirely on his studies as an undergraduate and now as a graduate student, Bernard represents one kind of student the administration wanted to see on its top committees. His appointment, along with nine other students and 11 faculty to six Board committees, represents a second step in the change of governance at the 121-year-old Roman Catholic university. The school, last November, announced a change to a predominantly lay Board of Trustees with the first layman, Mr. Mead, serving as chairman. The new Board consists of 19 laymen and five religious from the Society of Mary, which founded the university in 1850.

The six committees are Objectives & Purposes, Finance, Academic Policies & Programs, Student Affairs, Facilities & Development, and Committee on Trustees. The groups serve in an advisory capacity to the Board and are authorized to conduct studies on matters requiring the attention or action of the Board. Matters may be referred to the committees by the Chairman of the Board, the President of the University, or may be originated within the committee in its area of activity.

Bernard is currently a teaching assistant in the Philosophy Department at UD where he is studying for his master's degree.
