DAYTON, Ohio, March 22, 1971 --- The Performing and Visual Arts Department at the University of Dayton will present the UD Players' presentation of "Celebration" March 26-28 and April 2-3, at 8:30 p.m. in the Boll Theater of the Kennedy Union.

"Celebration", the 1969 Broadway hit, was written by Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt, the team that gave us the longest-running show in the professional American Theater, "The Fantasticks."

A slightly different musical, a fairy tale for adults, "Celebration" is part of the modern theater. Its style dates back to the origins of simplified abstraction. "Celebration" is a highly ritualistic and realistic musical.

Tickets for all performances are $2.00. They may be purchased at the UD Kennedy Union Box Office, or by sending check or money order with a self-addressed stamped envelope to University of Dayton Players, 300 College Park Avenue, Dayton, Ohio, 45409.
