DAYTON, Ohio, March 24, 1971 — The University of Dayton Performing and Visual Arts Department, Division of Fine Arts, will sponsor an Art Festival March 31 through April 4, in which student and public entries will be exhibited. Over 400 works of art in the areas of painting, ceramics, drawings, sculpturing and the various mixed media are expected to be displayed in the Kennedy Union Plaza.

UD student entries will be exhibited from March 31 through April 2. All non-UD student entries will be exhibited on April 3 and 4 with an entry fee of $5.00. Sunday, April 4, at 2 p.m., judges representing the UD faculty and art experts in the Dayton community will select and award first, second and third place ribbons in each category.

Registration for entries must be completed by March 25. All must register on the first day they plan to exhibit. In case of rain, the Festival will be held in the Kennedy Union.

For further information contact Paul Cusano, chairman of the Festival Planning Committee, 229-6445; Heidi Faust, 229-2582; or Helen Corless, 229-3675.
