DAYTON, Ohio, April 26, 1971 --- On May 1, 1971, a "Festival of Awareness" for youth of the Metropolitan Dayton area will be presented at the University of Dayton Fieldhouse, from 3:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. Sponsored by the United Church of Christ and The Religion in Life Committee of the University of Dayton, this ecumenical event is designed to bring together community youth facing an inactive summer and various community summer volunteer opportunities, job opportunities, places to become involved and service projects.

Each organization will be exhibiting its purpose through booths designed by the respective groups. Music will be provided through the day and ending with a music festival from 7:00 - 10:00 p.m. featuring "The Wire Service", a folk group from United Theological Seminary; "The Bleaugass Band and Show" from Dayton; "Anonymous", a local rock band; and "Friar Randal and the Shoup Sisters", an exciting new singing group from St. Leonard's Franciscan Seminary. Special guest stars for the evening are Malcolm and Duffy from WKEF-TV's "Clubhouse 22", who will host the evening program.

Admission for the entire event is $.50. The evening meal will be available at a modest cost through the University of Dayton Student Cafeteria. The University Admissions Office will have student guides available for Campus tours.
