Koepnick, 3102 Lenox Drive, Kettering, has been awarded a four-year $10,800 University Fellowship to The Ohio State University. The December graduate of the University of Dayton, who will be granted a doctoral degree through the four-year Fellowship, will begin his studies in September.

He was the third child of Mr. and Mrs. Koepnick to graduate from UD. His sister, Mrs. Marilou Koepnick Janowski, graduated in 1963 and his brother Don received his diploma in 1967. Mrs. Janowski lives at 9749 Ariadne Trail, Kettering, and Don lives in Charlotte, North Carolina. He is Project Manager of Irwin Corporation there. He was recently released from the service, having received the bronze star with valor during duty in Vietnam.
