DAYTON, Ohio, May 4, 1971 --- Thomas Madigan, Director of the Kennedy Memorial Union Food Services at the University of Dayton, will take over as director of the University's entire food services operation, Brother Joseph Mervar, S.M., UD Business Manager, announced today. Madigan, who was born in St. Mary's, grew up in Wapakoneta, and graduated from Troy High School in 1948, will assume his new duties on July 1.

Brother Mervar also announced that Steve Bernstein, assistant to Madigan for the past two years, will assume the position of the Kennedy Union food services director at the same time. Bernstein is a native of Brooklyn, but came to UD from New Mexico University.

Food Services at the University includes 13 dining rooms of which seven operate daily to feed students, faculty, staff and administration in the Kennedy Union, Marycrest, the women's dorm; Flyers Hangar and the West Campus. Almost 15,000 meals are served daily in those dining rooms. Food Services also handles special parties in four other Kennedy Union rooms and the Arena Associates Lounge in the new UD Arena.

Madigan, who is married and has six children, spent 11 years in St. Joseph's elementary and secondary schools before transferring to Troy High School for his senior year. He spent four years in the United States Air Force, graduated from the University of Dayton in 1956 and spent five years with the Frisch's Restaurant chain. He is currently studying for his master's of business administration degree at UD.

He is second vice president of the Dayton Branch, Food Service Executive Association, and a member of the Miami Valley Restaurant Association. He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James (Catherine Noonan) of Wapakoneta.

Bernstein, who graduated from New Mexico in 1964, worked in that University's food services program until 1969 when he came to Dayton. As assistant to Madigan he has had responsibility for special parties in the Kennedy Union, the Arena Associates Lounge, and The Pit, an on-campus student club. Bernstein is married and has one son.
