DAYTON, Ohio, November 18, 1970 --- Project Interface of the University of Dayton will sponsor a unique multi-media presentation designed by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company Tuesday, December 1. Entitled "Take a Fresh Look" the three-screen presentation is a commentary on contemporary American culture.

Originally prepared for the employees of Ohio Bell, the panoramic presentation is a unique statement on the times in which we live, a statement on the situation as it exists today in the areas of youth, race, religion and education. It dramatically illustrates the changing atmosphere in which we pursue our professions and direct our institutions.

Three showings of "Take a Fresh Look" are scheduled for 9:30 a.m., 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. in the UD Kennedy Union Ballroom (Second Floor). Immediately following each showing, a panel composed of community business leaders, UD faculty and students will conduct an open forum, discussing the issues brought out in the presentation.

Taking part in the first panel of the day will be Gordon Spencer Meyers, Management trainee, Credit Department, Winters Bank; Howard Chalfant, Chief Metallurgist, Inland Manufacturing (GM); Harry Caruth, Internal Communications Department, Mead Corporation; Randy Lumpp, Assistant Professor of Theology, UD; and Tim Burgunder, UD Junior.

Included in the 2 p.m. panel will be James Wall, Section Head, Future Products Appraisal and Development, Inland Manufacturing (GM); William Ahlfield, Director of Public Relations, Mead Corporation; Tom Apple, Merchant Relations Representative, Winters Bank; Rev. Cyril Middendorf, Associate Professor of Theology at UD; and John Holt, UD Junior.

Taking part in the 7:30 panel will be Robert Alig, Supervisor of Paints and Coating, Inland Manufacturing (GM); James McSwiney, President of Mead Corporation; Enrique Romaguera, Professor of French at UD; and Rita Brown, UD Senior.

The total length of each program will be an hour and 15 minutes.
