Dayton, Ohio, February 15, 1971 --- Brother Stanley Mathews, Professor of English at the University of Dayton, has been appointed Assistant Provincial and Director of Education for the Cincinnati Province, Society of Mary, Rev. William Ferree, S.M., Provincial, announced today. Brother Mathews, who was born in Cincinnati 48 years ago, has spent 26 years in education on the high school and university level.

Brother Mathews replaces Brother John Jansen, who resigned the positions last fall when he was appointed President of Bergamo, the Christian Center for Renewal on UD's East Campus.

As Director of Education, Brother Mathews will have jurisdiction over Marianist educational units in Dayton, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Kalamazoo, Michigan; Memphis, Tennessee; Africa, Ireland, Australia, Canada, and Japan.

A 1939 graduate of St. Xavier High School in Cincinnati, Brother Mathews attended the University of Cincinnati for two years and then completed his requirements for a bachelor's degree at the University of Dayton in 1944. He holds M.A. and M.S. degrees from Western Reserve University, now known as Case-Western Reserve, in Cleveland.

He took his final vows for the Society of Mary in 1945 and was assigned to Cathedral Latin High School in Cleveland. He returned to the University of Dayton in 1951 and served in its libraries through 1958 when he became principal of St. Joseph's High School in Cleveland. This assignment lasted until 1965 when he was named to a similar position at Chaminade in Dayton.

Since 1968 he has been assigned to various positions at the University, Bergamo and within the Province. He currently is teaching at both UD and Wright State University and serves as director for the Marianist Vocation and Human Resources programs. He also directs the Black America workshops at Bergamo.

His mother is Sr. Julia Agnes, S.N.D., who entered the convent after the death of her husband. She is assigned to UD's Department of Elementary Education and has served at Dayton's Julienne High School.
