DAYTON, Ohio, October 4, 1971 --- A course designed to help married people explore ways and means to grow in their love relationships will be offered this month (October) at the University of Dayton. Titled "Successful Husband-Wife Relationship" the course is being given by Reverend Norbert C. Burns, S.M., who has spent more than 25 years counseling married couples and offering courses, workshops and seminars in the meaning of married love.

The course, which is under the sponsorship of UD's Special Sessions Department, includes mutual understanding of love: theological and philosophical; mutual understanding of love: ascetical, descriptive and comparative; understanding the love needs of each other; meeting problems: money, in-laws, responsible parenthood; the sanctity of sex; and an ideal 24 hour love day.

It will start on Thursday, October 14, and run for six Thursday sessions from 7:30 to 9 P.M. Course fee is $15.
