DAYTON, Ohio, October 15, 1971 --- The Ohio Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers is holding its Annual Meeting at Bergamo Center, University of Dayton East Campus, October 17, 18, and 19. The President of the Association is Joan E. Richards, Registrar, St. John's College of Cleveland. The Registrars and Admissions Officers of the University of Dayton, Sinclair Community College, and Wright State University are hosting this conference.

The program format for this year's Annual Meeting is built around the topic: The Admissions Officer or Registrar - Who is he?, What is his position? Dr. Andres P. Spiegel, Vice President and Provost of Wright State University; Professor Robert I. Mitchell, University of Dayton Faculty Member; William Shelton, Alumnus of Ohio University; and Richard Uritus, Graduate Student at the University of Dayton; will make up a panel speaking on: "The Admissions Officer or Registrar's Interaction with the Administration, the Faculty, Student's and Alumni." These key-note talks are expected to set the tone of the two days of discussion that will follow.

Attending the conference are some one-hundred representatives from the 76 institutions that make up the Ohio Association. This Ohio organization will host the National Meeting to be held in Cleveland April 17-20, 1972.
