DAYTON, Ohio, November 2, 1971 --- The culture, entertainment, pastries and tea of many countries will feature the annual International Tea at the University of Dayton, Sunday, November 7, at 2 P.M. in the Kennedy Union Ballroom. The program, open to the public with no charge, is sponsored by the University's International Affairs Club which is comprised of foreign and American students.

The entertainment features will be a Panamanian Courtship dance, an Arabian belly dancer, a Cuban guitarist who sings in Italian, English and Spanish and singing groups from the Far East, Pakistan and France.

Conducted by members of the International Affairs Club on a voluntary basis, the students are seeking donations of cookies and other gourmet foods. Charles Maqsud of Iraq is chairman of the program and is assisted by Ali Sani of Saudi Arabia and Amos Leviav of Israel, who is acting coordinator of the sponsoring club.

For information one can call Charles at 229-5431, Ali at 294-2234, or Amos at 275-5693.
