2-14-1972

Harold E. Varvel Sr. Elected President of Parents Association

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation

https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/3978
DAYTON, Ohio, February 14, 1972 --- Harold E. Varvel Sr., of Kettering has been elected president of the University of Dayton's Parents Association.

Mr. Varvel is president and general manager of Koehring Master Division. The native Daytonian was one of the founders of Master Vibrator. In 1967, it became a division of the Koehring Co., one of Fortune's "500 Largest."

As UD Parents Association president, Mr. Varvel heads a board of 24 elected directors. All parents and guardians of U.D.'s undergraduate students are association members.

"Our goal for the year," Mr. Varvel said after becoming a president in the educational area as well as in commerce, "is to improve parent-university communications, and to encourage active participation."

Other elected officers of the Parents Association are Donald W. Foley, first vice-president, and Mrs. John Reiling, second vice-president, both of Dayton.

Kathy Varvel, a junior at UD, is one of five Varvel children. By coincidence, Mr. Varvel's election to the Board came less than a month after Kathy had been elected 1972-73 captain of the Flyerettes, the University's nationally known precision dancing corps.

Others elected to the Parents Association board are Robert F. Archdeacon, Laurence D. Bruno, Harry B. Cassano, Leslie H. Drayton, Mrs. Edward Drukteinis, Ronald F. Eichner, Edward G. Gmeiner, Claude Kroger, George G. Kinzel er, Frank Lindberg, James W. McKenna, Doyle H. Paddock, Stephen R. Quinn, Lavern Weaber, and Mrs. Edwin J. Swiesler, all from Dayton. Board members from other towns include Frank J. Bates, of Cleveland; Charlton T. Campbell, of Columbus, Indiana; Jack E. Caveney of Chicago, Illinois; Richard F. Drew, of Indianapolis, Indiana; Richard Frierott, of Minster, Ohio; Joseph A. Igel, of Columbus, Ohio; Frank J. McNally, of Richmond, Virginia; Al T. Suttmann, of Bellbrook, Ohio; Albert E. Trauth, of Cincinnati, Ohio; and Robert Yeazell, of Springfield, Ohio.

Other officials of the Association are Joseph Burns, secretary-treasurer; William H. Buerhle, past president, and Mrs. Martin J. Eisen, president of the UD Mothers Club; all of Dayton.