2-15-1972

Mr. Alan Cook to Present Third Organ Recital in Series
DAYTON, Ohio, February 15, 1972 --- Mr. Alan Cook, teaching fellow and doctoral candidate in organ at the University of Michigan, will present the third in a series of University of Dayton organ recitals at the Seventh Day Adventist Church of Kettering on Sunday, February 27, at 7:30 p.m. The recitals are arranged through the University's Music Division of the Performing & Visual Arts Department.

Mr. Cook, who is on leave from his position as a faculty member at Presbyterian College in Clinton, South Carolina, has concertized extensively throughout the south and midwest.

He is a graduate of Wooster (Ohio) High School and has two degrees from Ohio Wesleyan University and a master of music with a major in organ at the University of Michigan. He served two years (1965-67) as the Organist at First Presbyterian Church in St. Petersburg, Florida, and since 1967 has been an instructor in Music at Presbyterian College.

He is a member of the American Guild of Organists, Ann Arbor Chapter; Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, American Association of University Professors, Presbyterian Association of Musicians, Kappa Sigma Fraternity, Pi Kappa Lambda, national music honor society, and the Music Educator's National Conference.

-30-