DAYTON, Ohio, March 3, 1972 — The Ohio Conference of the American Association of University Professors will meet at the University of Dayton on Saturday, March 11, 1972. More than 30 of the 55 Chapters of the A.A.U.P. are expected to be represented by their voting representatives. Other members are also expected to be present.

The conference will take place in Miriam Hall's O'Leary Auditorium at 9:30 a.m. Registration begins at 8:30 a.m.

The welcoming speeches will be given by the Reverend Bernard L. Horst, S.M., President of the University of Dayton Chapter of the A.A.U.P.; the Reverend Raymond A. Roesch, S.M., President of the University of Dayton; and the Reverend Charles J. Lees, S.M., Provost of the University of Dayton.

The business meeting agenda will include election of chief administrative officials, revelation of faculty salaries in public institutions, nominees for A.A.U.P. National Council, personnel files of faculty members, and new business from the floor.

Several committee reports and resolutions will be read. The reports include: Committee A (Special Investigations); Committee B (Professional Ethics); Committee F (Chapter business); Committee G (International Education); Committee H (History of the Conference); Committee N (Collective Bargaining in Higher Education); Committee W (Standards for Women in Higher Education); Committee Z (Productivity and Compensation); the Constitutional Amendment proposed by the Akron Chapter; Committee on Challenge and Change; and Nominating Committee. The resolutions are on Teaching Assistants and Junior Faculty; the Heidelberg College Chapter; and the Ohio State University Lima Campus.
