DAYTON, Ohio, April 5, 1972 — The Honorable Walter Judd, M.D., former United States Congressman and medical doctor who spent 10 years in China as a medical missionary, will lecture at the University of Dayton on Thursday, April 13, at 1 P.M. in the John F. Kennedy Memorial Union Ballroom.

The former Congressman, who is a close personal friend of Chiang Kai Shek and also knows the mainland China leaders, will discuss the China Affair during his hour-long lecture. He also will answer questions concerning the Far East for which he has been an Asian advisor to U.S. presidents since Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Dr. Judd's knowledge of the Chinese leaders on both sides is intimate since the province in which he served as a missionary was a key point in the Chinese civil war before World War II. The currently missing Communist leader, Lin Piao, was once a Dr. Judd patient during those civil war days in the late 1930s.

Dr. Judd was elected to Congress from Minnesota in 1942 and served for 20 years, twice chairing the House Subcommittee on Far Eastern Affairs. In 1960, he was voted among the five "most influential" members of Congress, and that year delivered the keynote address at the Republican National Convention.

Dr. Judd's life has been dominated by his interest in Chinese culture, heritage, language and political situation over the past 40 years. During his long stay in the Congress he visited the Far East many times to stay abreast of the situation in that part of the world.

Dr. Judd's visit has been arranged through the Young Americans For Freedom Speakers Bureau in Washington, D.C. and sponsored by several organizations on the University of Dayton campus.

(Note to News Media: I have Xeroxed this release because of labor problems in the office. My secretary is so swamped with work that I suggested that I put this release out immediately since the lecture is soon and was only arranged today (Wednesday, April 5). My secretary would never approve of this 'sloppy' way of doing things but expediency is my keyword today. Thanks for your indulgence. I didn't want my secretary to get blamed for this mess....Joe McLaughlin)
