DAYTON, Ohio, April 11, 1972 --- Brother Joseph J. Panzer, S.M., Dean of The School of Education at the University of Dayton since 1965 to the present, died this morning at 3:00 a.m. (April 11, 1972). He was 61 years old (March 10, 1911) and a native of Baltimore, Maryland.

Brother Panzer had devoted 44 years to the Society of Mary, having taken his first vows in 1928 and his final vows in 1932.

The University of Dayton awarded him a bachelor's degree in education in 1931. In 1938 he was awarded a master's degree in history from Catholic University of America and a doctorate in education from Fordham in 1954.

Sixteen years were spent serving the University of Dayton. He first taught at Cathedral Latin in Cleveland in 1931 to 1936. He began his services at UD in 1938 to 1940 as an instructor in history. From 1940-1945 he was principal of St. John's High School in Pittsburgh. He held this position until 1951. He returned to the University of Dayton in 1955 after receiving his doctorate and served as Assistant Dean of Education until 1957. He became Dean of the University in 1957 until 1961. From 1961-1963 Brother Panzer was Dean of Education at Catholic University of Puerto Rico.

Once again Brother Panzer returned to the University in 1964 and served as Director of Institutional Studies and a professor of education until 1965.
In 1965 he became Dean of the School of Education and served in this capacity until the present.

Brother Panzer was a member of the National Catholic Education Association and the Association for Higher Education.

Friends may view the body at the University of Dayton Alumni Hall Chapel (main campus) Thursday, April 13, from 4:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Funeral will be at the Immaculate Conception Chapel (University's main chapel, main campus) Friday, April 14, at 3:00 p.m. Burial will be in the Society of Mary's Queen of Heaven Cemetery.

Surviving are one brother, George Panzer, and two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Frenkil and Miss Elizabeth Panzer, all of Baltimore, Maryland.

Donations may be made to the University of Dayton Scholarship Fund in memory of Brother Joseph Panzer.
