Reverend Raymond A. Roesch, President of the University of Dayton, has announced two reappointments and two new appointments to academic Department Chairmanships at the University.

The Reverend Matthew Kohmescher, S.M., has been reappointed as Chairman of the Department of Theological Studies, for a four year term extending from July 1, 1972, to June 30, 1976. Dr. Bernard J. Bedard has also been reappointed to his Chairmanship in the Department of English. His four year term will follow the same time period as Father Kohmescher's.

The two new appointments are that of Professor Joseph Rosa to the Psychology Department, and Brother Harold Mushenheim, S.M., to the Department of Mathematics. Brother Mushenheim is succeeding Dr. Kenneth Schraut, who was named "Distinguished Professor of the Year" at the recent President's Recognition Dinner. Dr. Schraut is returning fulltime to a teaching position at the University. Brother Mushenheim's Chairmanship is also for a four year term, similar to Father Kohmescher's and Dr. Bedard's.

Professor Rosa has been named interim Chairman of the Psychology Department, succeeding Dr. Samuel Bowers who also is returning to fulltime teaching on the campus. A search committee will be appointed to find a permanent chairman for the Psychology Department.

All the appointments were made in consultation with department members, academic Deans, and the Provost.
