DAYTON, Ohio, May 5, 1972 --- Eight new members will join the University of Dayton Board of Trustees at the close of the Annual Spring Meeting on May 25, according to H. Talbott Mead, Board Chairman. The appointees were elected by the Members of the Corporation upon being nominated by the current Trustees. Five of the eight are alumni of the University of Dayton and include two educators, two lawyers and four business executives.

The electees, replacing eight men whose terms expire this month, include Richard Terrell, Group Vice President, General Motors Corporation, Detroit; R. Stanley Laing, President, National Cash Register Company; William P. Sherman, Vice President, Standard Register Company; Daniel J. Mahoney, President, Dayton Newspapers Inc.; Brother Anthony J. Ipsaro, S.M., Faculty member, University of Notre Dame; Brother Stanley Mathews, S.M., Director of Education and Assistant Provincial, Cincinnati Province, Society of Mary; Hugh Wall, Partner in the law firm of Coolidge, Wall, Wood and Matusoff; and James Gilvary, U.D. National Alumni Association President and member of Smith and Schnacke law firm.

Trustees whose terms have expired are: Norbert C. Brockman, S.M., who is studying for the priesthood at St. Louis University; Eugene A. Mayl, partner with Murphy and Mayl; Kenneth P. Morse, retired President of Standard Register Company; Louis Polk, retired Chairman of the Board, Sheffield Corporation; David L. Rike, Chairman, Executive Committee, Rike's Department Store; George E. Sheer, retired President, Dayton McCall Corporation; Paul A. Sibbing, S.M., Assistant Superintendent of Schools, Diocese of Columbus; and Robert S. Oelman, Chairman of the Board, National Cash Register Company.

After an orientation session on the eve of the Annual Meeting, the new Board Members will be assigned membership on one of the following committees of the Board: Committee on Trustees, Finance, Objectives and Purposes, Academic Policies and Programs, Student Affairs, and Facilities and Development.

Mr. Terrell, a native of Dayton, has been with General Motors Corporation since 1937. He has served as field service engineer and researcher in Electromotive Division, installation engineer, district sales representative, general parts manager, assistant regional manager, and plant works manager, administrative assistant and General Manager, Frigidaire Division. Since 1970, he has been a Group Vice President, General Motors Corporation.

After serving as an officer in the U.S. Navy during World War II, Mr. Terrell has been active in many charitable organizations in Dayton and Detroit and has served on Boards and committees of many organizations in the midwest including the Board of Trustees, Loyola University in Chicago.

Mr. Laing has been President and a Director of NCR since 1964. He holds a Bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Washington and an MBA from Harvard Business School. He has been with the Dayton firm since 1947, serving in the comptroller's department which he headed from 1954 to 1960. He became Vice President of Finance in 1960 and Executive Vice President from 1962-1964. He is also a director of General Mills, Inc., Cincinnati Milacron, Inc., Arco Steel Corporation, B.F. Goodrich Company, Mead Corporation and Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland and is on the Board of Directors of Sinclair Community College. He is also a trustee of the Dayton Art Institute, Denison University, St. Elizabeth Medical Center, and is on the committee on administrative operations of Harvard University. During World War II Mr. Taing served as a Naval officer.

Mr. Sherman, whose father founded the Standard Register Company, is a 1941 graduate of U.D. He has served his alma mater frequently during the past 30 years including service on U.D.'s local fund drives of 1956, 1962 and 1970. He was National Chairman of the Alumni drive to match the million dollar Kettering Challenge Gift Program which concluded successfully in 1970. Active in civil and charitable organizations over a twenty year period, Mr. Sherman also served as Chairman of the University's 1967 football season ticket drive which netted the sale of 5,000 books, highest in the school's history. A member of the Knights of Columbus, Mr. Sherman has served on the Board of the Dayton Art Institute, Dayton Boy's Club, Good Samaritan hospital and the Junior Achievement of Dayton.

Mr. Mahoney graduated from Yale University in 1950 and received a Law degree from the University of Virginia in 1953. He has been associated with the Cox group of newspapers since 1953 in editorial and administrative positions. He served as Vice President of the Miami News from 1963 until his appointment as President of the Dayton Newspapers, Inc. in 1968. He has served on numerous civic and charitable organizations and is a member of the Florida Bar Association.

Mr. Gilvary received a Bachelor's degree from the University of Dayton in 1951 and his law degree from Western Reserve University in Cleveland. He joined the law firm of Smith and Schnacke and at one time served as Prosecuting Attorney of Kettering. In 1967 he was elected Vice President, and then President of the UD National Alumni Association. He has been active in alumni affairs for the past ten years and is currently directing a reorganization study of the alumni association.

Brother Isparo is a native of Cleveland, Ohio, and has been a member of the Society of Mary since 1949. He is assigned to the Marianist's New York Province. After teaching several years in secondary schools, he served as Principal of Cardinal Gibbons High School in Baltimore and as Superintendent of Schools in the Baltimore Archdiocese. While pursuing his doctoral studies at Notre Dame he was also appointed a member of the faculty. Considered a progressive in educational circles, he is in demand as a convention speaker and as a leader of seminars and lectures throughout the country.

Brother Mathews, a native of Cincinnati, entered the Marianist order in 1941. He taught in Marianist schools since 1945 and served as Principal of Chaminade High School in Dayton from 1965 to 1968, when he joined the staff of Bergamo. He was appointed to his present position February, 1971. The confidence of his fellow-Marianists was demonstrated by his election to the world wide general chapter of the Society of Mary in 1961, 1966 and 1967. He received his degrees from U.D. in 1943 and Western Reserve in 1948.

Mr. Wall received his Bachelor's degree from the University of Dayton in 1934.
