DAYTON, Ohio, May 26, 1972 --- Special Youth Art Workshop programs for the beginner, or the accomplished young artist will be available on three occasions this summer for two-week sessions, Dr. Bernard Plogman, Chairman of the University of Dayton’s Fine Arts Division of the Department of Performing & Visual Arts, announced today. The sessions are part of the division's emphasis on the development of youth skills in the Dayton area. Age limit is 6 to 17 years.

The two-week sessions start June 19, July 3 and July 17 and will be conducted in the Albert Emanuel Center for the Performing and Visual Arts on the UD campus. The $17 tuition includes materials.

The workshops will include the use of various two and three dimensional media; drawing, painting, graphics, ceramics, and sculpture. Other forms will be taught upon request. The emphasis will be placed on beginning at the student's own level of proficiency and expanding his or her skill and understanding of various media.

Classes for the 10 to 13 age group will be held from 9 A.M. to 11 A.M., the six to nine age level from 11 A.M. to 1 P.M. and the 14 through 17 age group from 1 P.M. to 3 P.M. daily.
