DAYTON, Ohio, July 28, 1972 -- The parade of Geennens through the halls of academia continues next week with Sister Mary James Geenen and Sister Rosalyn Geenen receiving their master's degrees from the University of Dayton on Sunday, July 30, while Sister Timothy Geenen and Sister Rosemarie Geenen will receive similar diplomas Friday, August 4, from the University of Wisconsin at Superior.

The four women are daughters of the late Mr. Henry and Mrs. Gladys McCormick Geenen of Freedom, Wisconsin. There were 12 children in this farm family.

Sister Rosalyn, who receives a Master of Science in Elementary Education, School Administration, has been pursuing her degree for five summers. Sister Mary James, who receives a similar degree with a concentration in the master teacher program, has been attending Dayton during summers since 1969.

Sister Mary James will return to St. Mary's School in Kaukauna and Sister Rosalyn to St. Philip's School, Green Bay.

Sister Timothy and Sister Rosemarie have attended summer sessions at Superior since 1969 and are receiving Master of Science in Education degrees with concentrations in reading supervisor and reading specialist respectively. Sister Timothy will return to St. Gabriel's School, Neenah, in the fall and Sister Rosemarie takes over as principal of St. Mary's in Kaukauna.

Three other members of the family serve education in Wisconsin. William, who has a master's degree, is Superintendent of Schools, White Lake; Mrs. Mary Fox, also with a master's, is a teacher in Beloit, and Rev. James J. Geenen is pastor of St. James Parish and Director of its Catechetical School in Cooperstown.
