DAYTON, Ohio, October 27, 1972 --- The School of Education at the University of Dayton is sponsoring a Teacher Career Conference on Saturday, October 28, for all high school students who show some interest in becoming teachers.

Opportunities to discuss careers in elementary, secondary, special, home economics, physical, art, music and business education will be provided for in small group meetings. These meetings will be repeated several times to give the participants chances to investigate more than one area. Representatives of the Financial Aid and Admissions Offices will also be available.

Registration will be from 9:00 to 9:30 a.m. in the Fieldhouse. After the formal meetings there will be tours of the campus and all visitors connected with this program will be the University's guests at the UD-VMI football game at 1:30. Students may purchase their lunch at the U.D. Snack Bar and advisors will be guests of the School of Education for lunch.
