DAYTON, Ohio, November 10, 1971 --- Congressman James W. Stanton, 20th District, Ohio, will give a public lecture on the University of Dayton campus this Friday (November 12) at 10 a.m. in the Kennedy Union Lecture room. Congressman Stanton, a 1959 UD graduate, will speak on the role of a freshman Congressman and participate in a question and answer period on political and governmental procedures.

Mr. Stanton is being sponsored by The Department of Political Science at the University and the program will be conducted by Mr. Walter Howard, Assistant Professor of Political Science. While the program is principally aimed at political science majors, the general public is invited.

The Congressman took his pre-law at UD and completed his law studies at John Marshall Law School in Cleveland. Prior to his matriculation at the two schools Mr. Stanton had served with the United States Air Force in Korea for four years (1950-54).

He served as a Cleveland Councilman, serving six terms. He was elected President of the Cleveland City Council in 1964 and served in that capacity until 1970. He resigned to run for the United States House of Representatives in November last year.

He is currently on the Committee on Public Works and serves on the rivers and harbors, roads, investigations and oversight and economic development subcommittees. He also is on the Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries and is assigned to the subcommittees on Panama Canal, Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey and navigation, and maritime education and training.

He has served as the labor counsel for the American Federation of Radio and Television Artists and is a trustee of Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, Cleveland State University. He has served on several local, state and national committees over the past 10 years.

Voted the Outstanding Young Man of Cleveland in 1965, Mr. Stanton also received the Cleveland State University Phi Alpha Delta Outstanding Alumni Award in 1970. He and his wife, Margaret, have two children, Joseph 9, and Richard, 6.
