DAYTON, Ohio, December 27, 1971 --- Mr. Carlos Carrasco, former Chairman of the Department of Electrical Engineering at Universidad Tecnica del Estado, recently graduated from the University of Dayton, Dayton, Ohio, U.S.A., with a master of engineering degree in electrical engineering after two years of study.

Mr. Carrasco was brought to the University by Dr. Mario Saquel, who is Director of the University's Department of International Education and Chilean Consul in the midwest section of the United States. Dr. Saquel is the nephew of former Chilean President, Dr. Eduardo Frei-Montalva, who recently completed a Foreign Affairs Seminar at the American school.

Mr. Carrasco's graduation was witnessed by his wife, Estrella, and three children, Roberto, 14; Carlos, 12; and Lorena, 3. They have returned to Chile.

The ceremony took place at the 122nd Commencement Exercises of the University of Dayton.
