LIFE IN THE PARISH IS FOCUS OF SEMINAR

DAYTON, Ohio, September 15, 1982 -- The University of Dayton MORES - Center for Creative Ministry and Bergamo Renewal Center are co-sponsoring a program titled, "Is There Life in the Parish After Vatican II?" The program will be conducted on September 22 beginning at 10:15 a.m. at the Bergamo Center.

Reverend William J. Bausch will conduct the day-long session for clergy and lay members of area parishes. The focus will be on increasing the effectiveness of parish living.

Bausch is a Roman Catholic priest, ordained in 1955. His expertise in parish community living is evidenced by his several pastoral assignments in New Jersey and in his work with the Diocesan Pastoral Council, Cana Conferences, Family Life Bureau, and Priests' Senate. He has been pastor of St. Mary's Parish in Colts Neck, New Jersey since 1972.

In addition, Bausch has published in such national Catholic periodicals as The Priest, U.S. Catholic, and Living Light. He has authored many books, the most recent of which is The Christian Parish: Whispers of the Risen Christ.

Workshop fee is $10. For additional information and registration, call 229-4327.
