

10-15-1982

A Polish Harvest Festival at the University of Dayton

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation

"A Polish Harvest Festival at the University of Dayton" (1982). News Releases. 4289.
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/4289

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.

The University of Dayton

News Release

A POLISH HARVEST FESTIVAL
AT THE UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON

DAYTON, Ohio, October 15, 1982 -- The first event of the 1982-83 University of Dayton Continental Cuisine Series will be "Polskie Mozyunki," (A Polish Harvest Festival), on Saturday, November 13, in the Kennedy Union Ballroom at 6:30 p.m.

The menu will include assorted canapes of seived egg, cold ham with horse-radish, sauteed chicken livers, and stuffed cherry tomatoes; hot beet soup and meat crepes; stuffed rolled steak with buckwheat groats and mushroom sauce; red cabbage; chicken with cucumbers in sour cream; and parsley potatoes; chocolate torte; fruit cake; nut bars; and fried pastry. Various wines will be available for purchase.

Gene Schill, associate director of athletics and sports information director will be master of ceremonies and Reverend Roman Rodak, pastor at St. Adalbert's Church in Dayton, will give the invocation in Polish. Edward Gypulski, president of the St. Adalbert Polish Heritage Commission, will describe the origins and customs of the food being served.

Dinner music, featuring pieces by Frederic Chopin, will be provided by University of Dayton music students. There will be a display of Polish artifacts in the Kennedy Union main showcase and a room will be decorated as a traditional Polish home for Christmas. Because 1982 marks the 600th anniversary of the Blessed Virgin of Czestochowa, which is celebrated universally by the Poles, there will be an altar erected in the Kennedy Union.

Tickets will be on sale from October 20 through November 5. Tickets are $16 per person and may be obtained in Kennedy Union 231 (229-4114). There are a limited number of tickets available.