UD STUDENTS "CLEAN SWEEP"
THE OFF-CAMPUS AREA

DAYTON, Ohio, October 25, 1982 -- The University of Dayton, in cooperation with the City of Dayton, is having a neighborhood clean-up program on Monday, November 1, from 10 a.m. until noon. The "clean sweep" will involve approximately 250 UD students who volunteer their time for this effort.

The "clean sweep" effort is organized by the UD Student Association and the Off-Campus Center. UD director of Off-Campus Housing Joseph Beale says this semi-annual clean-up program "demonstrates the students' concern for their community. UD students care about their neighborhood just like anyone else."

The City of Dayton Southeast Priority Board assists the "clean sweep" effort by providing equipment such as brooms, rakes, sweeping machines, and trucks for trash.
