OF DISCUSSION AT UD

DAYTON, Ohio, November 3, 1982 -- Michael P. Grady, associate professor of education at St. Louis University, will speak at the University of Dayton on November 9, at 2:30 p.m., on "Left-Right Brain Learning."

Grady will discuss the need for educators and students to become more aware of the implications of variations in learning functions that are contained in the right and left hemispheres of the brain.

The lecture, which will be held in Chaminade Hall 102, is free and open to the public. Grady's visit is sponsored by Phi Delta Kappa. For more information, call Brother Jerry O'Neil at 229-4619.
