BACH SOCIETY PRESENTS CONCERT OF CHRISTMAS MUSIC

DAYTON, Ohio, December 3, 1982 — The Dayton Bach Society will present a concert of choral music for the Christmas season on Saturday, December 11, at 8 p.m. at the Seventh-day Adventist Church, Stroop Road at Southern Boulevard. Tickets for the concert will be available at the door.

The concert will include Benjamin Britten's well-known Ceremony of Carols; the chorale motet "Lo, How A Rose E'er Blooming" by the contemporary German composer Hugo Distler; and a selection of carol arrangements. Soloists in the concert include Joan Harrah, mezzo soprano; Donna Reece, soprano; Darlene Schilling, soprano; David Seifrit, baritone; and Faye Seifrit, soprano.

Carol arrangements from various countries and national traditions will complete the program. The audience will be asked to join in singing some well-known Christmas hymns and carols.
