2-10-1983

UD News Director Named Outstanding Young Woman

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/4357

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.
UD NEWS DIRECTOR NAMED OUTSTANDING YOUNG WOMAN

DAYTON, Ohio, February 10, 1983 -- Ro Nita B. Hawes, director of news services for the University of Dayton Department of University Communications, has been named an Outstanding Young Woman for 1982 by the Outstanding Young Women of America Board of Advisors.

The selection recognizes "outstanding ability, accomplishments, and service to the community" on the part of young professional women throughout the United States.

Hawes, in her second year at UD, was previously director of community relations for public television channels 16 (WPTD) and 14 (WPTO). She also worked locally as assistant director of community services at WDTN-TV and as a talk show host for WDAO radio.

An active community volunteer, Hawes is on the board of directors for the Dayton Urban League and Campfire Council of the Greater Dayton Area, and was the United Negro College Fund Telethon co-chairman for 1982. She also headed the Dayton Performing Arts Fund Media Week at the Dayton Arcade this past fall.

The Dayton native is president of the local chapter of American Women in Radio and Television, Inc. and a member of the Junior League of Dayton.

-30-