BLACK AND WHITE GROUP INTERACTIONS DISCUSSED

DAYTON, Ohio, February 25, 1983 -- A workshop focusing on the way blacks and whites interact in group situations will be held Sunday, March 13, from 2 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. at the Westminster Presbyterian Church. The program leaders are Joan Martin and Nancy Richardson.

Martin is director of Church and World Institute - Protestant Advisory Board at Temple University. She is an ordained minister of the United Presbyterian Church and has been active in Black Presbyterians United, Church Employed Women, Feminist Theological Institute, the Justice for Women Program of the National Council of Churches, and the American Academy of Religion.

Richardson is a consultant on women's concerns at Episcopal Divinity School in Massachusetts and co-director of the Women's Theological Center. She is an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ and has worked in campus ministry at Boston University, Oberlin College, and San Diego State College.

The workshop is co-sponsored by the University of Dayton, Church Women United in Greater Dayton, Miami Presbytery Committee on Women, Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur, United Church of Christ Department on Women, and Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Registration fee is $10 and includes dinner. To register call the University of Dayton Center for Creative Ministry at 229-4327.
