UD NAMES VICE PRESIDENT FOR ADMINISTRATION

DAYTON, Ohio, August 25, 1983 -- University of Dayton President Brother Raymond L. Fitz, S.M., has announced the appointment of M. Daniel Henry, Ph.D. as vice president for administration. Dr. Henry is currently assistant to the president for planning.

In making the appointment, President Fitz indicated that Henry will continue to be responsible for planning, including administration of the University's extensive Unit Review process, and for institutional studies and internal auditing. He will assume responsibility for five areas currently administered by other senior level staff, including: personnel services, human relations, computing activities, real estate, and legal affairs.

Dr. Henry came to UD in 1979 from Barry University in Miami, Florida, where he was professor and vice president for academic affairs. Prior to that he served as associate professor and dean of the college at LaRoche College, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
