A TEA AT UD

DAYTON, Ohio, September 22, 1983 -- On Sunday, October 2 the University of Dayton will sponsor the 23rd annual International Tea. The tea is the first event of Homecoming 1983 and will be held in the Kennedy Union Ballroom from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The theme of the tea is "Windows Of The World" and will feature an entertainment program of international music and dancing. Cookies, coffee and teas from various countries will be served. Dayton community and student ethnic groups will have a display of cultural artifacts on the second floor of Kennedy Union from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

A special event of the tea is the presentation of the Eun Joong Chyun Memorial Certificate in memory of a 21-year-old Korean international student who died in 1961 while attending the University of Dayton. The certificate is awarded to someone from the Greater Dayton community who has been outstanding in providing hospitality to international students.

According to Marie Milord, the UD International Student Advisor, "The goal of the UD American International Club is to achieve unity, friendship, and hope between American and international people and to enhance cultural exchange." Currently 200 international students representing 40 different countries on five continents attend the University of Dayton.

The tea is free and open to the public.
