News Release

COME BLOW YOUR HORN AT THE UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON

DAYTON, Ohio, September 28, 1983 -- The University of Dayton's Music Division has announced the formation of the Miami Valley Horn Club, an organization to promote interest and enjoyment of the French horn through ensemble performance, informal discussions, seminars, and concerts.

Membership is open to any horn player who is at least a freshman in high school. Teachers, professionals, and amateurs are all encouraged to participate. Richard Chenoweth, assistant professor of music at UD and the driving force behind the establishment of the group, has set the first rehearsal for Sunday, October 16 at 2 p.m. in the Music Theatre Building on the University campus.

There is no fee for membership in the Miami Valley Horn Club, and membership will include once-a-month rehearsals, plus a discount admission to the Barry Tuckwell Symposium on December 9 at UD.

Anyone who would like more information is asked to contact Richard Chenoweth, Music Division, University of Dayton, at 229-3936. Formerly on the faculty of Wittenberg University, Chenoweth performs with the Santa Fe Opera as well as the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra and other local ensembles.
